Dear Commissioner:

In response to the Office Action mailed July 30, 2004, Applicants and Assignee respectfully submit the following remarks and request favorable reconsideration of this application.

Introduction

The undersigned respectfully points out that the present Office Action rejects all pending claims after an interview in which the Examiner agreed that certain claims would be allowable if they were amended in a particular way. The claims were amended, as agreed. However, the Examiner has now departed from that agreement, without explanation. The shortcomings of the rejections made in the most recent Office Action are addressed in detail below.
